Department Statement
The history curriculum at The College of New Jersey is cross-cultural, transnational, and comparative. Students gain a global perspective.

Requirements for the Major
The total number of credits required for the major is 44: 12 in HIS 210, 220, 230; and 32 at the 300 or 400 level. These requirements apply to all history majors including those seeking teacher certification.

In order to develop a familiarity with different parts of the world and different moments in the past, students majoring in history must complete the following:

- HIS 210, 220/World History I, II
- HIS 230/The United States in World History
- one course on European History, HIS 300-331 (or 455, 498)
- one course on Eurasian or Middle Eastern History, HIS 332-349 (or 455, 498)
- one course on African or Latin American History, HIS 350–364 (or 455, 498)
- one course on North American and United States History, HIS 365-386 (or 455, 498)
- one course on Pre-modern Era, HIS 300-315, 335, 341, 347, 351 (or 455, 498)
- two Readings Seminars, HIS 455
- one Research Seminar, HIS 498
- sufficient other 300 or 400 level courses to gain 44 credits.

Readings Seminars involve directed readings and oral presentations. Research Seminars enable students to study in depth a topic of their choosing.

Students are welcome to cover more than one requirement with a single course.

Students seeking certification to teach social studies at the secondary level are subject to additional professional requirements including a semester of practice teaching. See below History Major: Teacher Preparation.

Requirements for the Minor
Eighteen (18) credits, of which at least 12 must be at the 300 or 400 level, with distribution across at least two of the department’s four geographical categories.

Departmental Honors
Students who rank highly at the start of the junior year are invited to undertake a two-semester honors thesis.

Program Entrance, Retention, and Exit Standards
Every major program at the College has set standards for allowing students to remain in that program, to transfer within the College from one program to another, and to graduate from a program. The following are the standards for history programs. Minimum grades are noted in parentheses:

- Retention in the program is based on the following performance standards in these “critical content courses”: HIS 210/220 World History I and II (C).
- Transfer into the program from another program within the College is based upon the following performance standards in these “foundation courses”: HIST 131/132 World History I and II (C).
- Graduation requires a GPA of 2.0, in History courses and overall, for students in History Liberal Arts (HISA). Students in history education (HIST) need a GPA of 2.75 in history and overall.

Transfer Student Standards
Students transferring from other colleges who have completed two courses in Western Civilization or World History with a GPA in these courses of 3.5 or better will receive credit for those courses and waivers for HIS 210–211. Any additional transfer credit will be decided by the chair on a case-by-case basis using a 3.5 GPA standard.
History Major (HISA)

During academic year 2003-2004, The College of New Jersey is in the process of transformative curricular change. Therefore only the course of study for first-year students entering in 2003-2004 is set out below. These students should consult their advisors when planning courses for future years. Supplements to this online bulletin also will be available on an ongoing basis.

History Major: Teacher Preparation (HIST)

Students preparing to teach social studies must successfully complete the Sophomore Field Experience course prior to formal entry into the program. The course requirements in reading instruction and diagnosis will be taken in conjunction with teaching field experience. Students should consult with major advisers for the approved specific course in the social and behavioral category and reading instruction and diagnosis.

Candidates for a teacher-education certificate must have a 2.75 cumulative grade point average both in the academic major and overall to successfully complete their teacher education program. They also must meet the state hygiene/physiology requirement, and pass the appropriate Praxis examination before the New Jersey State Department of Education will issue the appropriate certificate. Teacher-education candidates will receive a “certificate of eligibility with advanced standing” which requires a candidate to be provisionally certified for his or her first year of teaching. After one year of successful teaching, the candidate is eligible for a permanent certificate. The teacher candidate will also have to pay a fee during his or her first year of teaching.

COURSES (updated 11/6/03)

HIST 201/Ancient Near East 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives of the World, History
A survey of the civilizations of Mesopotamia, Egypt, Asia Minor, Syria, Palestine, Phoenicia, Assyria, and Persia. The course will focus on critical elements such as religion, writing and literature, agriculture and trade, weaponry and warfare, government, and advances in knowledge. Special attention will be given to the role of archaeology in understanding ancient history.

HIST 202/Classical Antiquity 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Traces the development of classical civilization and its extension across the Mediterranean basin and the adjacent peripheral regions of Africa, Asia, and Europe. The interaction between the Greek and Roman agents of the core and the indigenous peoples of the periphery will be considered as selected cases.

HIST 203/Jews, Christians, and Muslims
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
An examination of the interaction of Jewish, Christian, and Muslim peoples and politics in the West from the development of the Jesus movement within the milieu of 1st-century Judaism, through the rise of Islam and down to the post-French Revolutionary religious settlement.

HIST 204/Late Antiquity
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Traces the breakdown of the unity of the classical Mediterranean world as the African, Asian, and European hinterlands reacted against the Greco-Roman core. The emergence of culturally diverse elements, their stabilization by c. 1000 C.E., and the relationships among them are stressed.

HIS 210/World History I
4 cr.
An introduction to the history of human societies from prehistory to about 1500. Attention is given to the world’s major regions—Africa, Asia, Europe, and the Americas—and their different material conditions, cultures, and forms of socio-political organization. Along with basic knowledge of the period, students learn skills that pertain to analysis of world history in the premodern era.

HIST 211/Ancient/Medieval Christianity
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Traces the evolution of Christianity from a minority religion dominated by marginal groups and centered in the Middle East to the dominant religion of Europe and a major religion in every region around the Mediterranean. Examines the interaction between Christianity, Judaism, and Islam during the medieval period, and among the different forms of Christianity in West Asia, North Africa, and Europe.

HIST 217/Medieval Women
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Gender
An examination of the changing situations of European women from late Antiquity to the Renaissance, a period when Europe changed from a unified, polytheistic society focused on the Mediterranean, to a group of incipient nation-states, overwhelmingly Christian, characterized by a rise in urbanism, by looser social bonds, and by the need to respond to the challenges presented by Islam in the Middle East. Explores how the social, political, and legal structures that evolved in this period affected European women’s lives and relations between the sexes.

HIS 220/World History II
4 cr.
An introduction to the history of human societies from 1500 to the present. Attention is given to major forces that have propelled social change in the early modern and modern periods, with an emphasis on encounters among the world’s major societies including: the impact of slavery and industrial capitalism; European dominance and resistance; changing forms of class, gender, and race relations; and globalization. Along with basic knowledge of the period, students learn skills that pertain to analysis of world history in the modern era.

HIST 221/Europe in the Early Modern Period
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
The history of Europe from the mid-15th century to the French Revolution. Will consider European imperial expansion, the Reformation, witchcraft and its persecution, the Scientific Revolution, and the fall of the Ancient Regime.

HIS 230/The United States in World History
4 cr.
An introduction to the United States in world history from the 17th century to the present. The course deals with major forces in American development with an emphasis on encounters among Amerindians, Africans, Europeans, and Asians that created a distinct society linked to an increasingly interdependent world. Along with basic knowledge of the period, students learn skills that pertain to analysis of one major society interacting with others over time.

HIST 231/World History Since 1900
3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
This course will provide a broadly comparative assessment of the United States, Western Europe, Russia, China, and Japan during the 20th century. In addition to surveying major political and military developments, the course will attempt to identify differences and similarities in social organization and the harnessing of human energies.

HIST 232/Society and Politics in Modern Europe 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Examination of the social and political changes that have transformed modern Europe from the French Revolution to 1945. Topics include revolution, the emergence of mass politics, industrialization and class society, nationalism, changing forms of sexuality, imperialism, and total war.

HIST 236/The Holocaust 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
A general look at the causes and consequences of the genocidal actions by the Nazis against Jews and other groups in Europe (1933–1945) and reactions and responses by the world’s nations, institutions, and individuals; with an accent on the United States.

HIST 238/Germany in the 20th Century 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
An investigation of the social and political history of 20th-century Germany from the creation of a national state in 1871 to the unification of East and West Germany in 1990. Emphasis will be placed on the modern crises—surrounding national identity, economic change, democracy, ideologies of race and gender, and the Cold War—that give German history a wider relevance.

HIST 241/Politics and Religion in the Middle East 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
Investigation of the relationship between politics and religion in the Middle East. Special attention will be paid to comparative issues involved in the development of Islamic ideologies, the role of Islam in state formation, and the development of intellectual and politico-religious movements from the seventh century to the present.

HIST 242/Literary Images of Middle Eastern Societies 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
Focuses on the variety of literary images of Middle Eastern societies from the perspective of writers within as well as outside of the Middle East. Readings will range in time from the 7th century to the present, and will include religious literature, epics, traveler literature, poetry, biography, autobiography, historical chronicles, and novels. Specific themes such as nationalism, the role of women, ethnic identity, and sectarianism will be explored through literary sources.

HIST 246/African History in Film, Literature and Music 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
Explores the ways that African novelists, musicians, and filmmakers have memorialized Africa’s past. In the films of Mweze Ngangura, in the songs of Lomwe plantation workers, in the creative writing of African novelists, students will learn how trained artists and ordinary people alike use the arts to think through history. How art comments on political relations in the present is also an enduring theme.

HIST 251/Chinese Civilization 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
A thematic approach to Chinese culture covering the period from pre-history until the 18th century. Topics include Confucianism, the imperial system, women and the family, law and the legal system, peasant movements, and literature.

HIST 266/Europeans and Indians 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Non-Western
Recounts and analyzes the patterns of interaction among the Spanish, English, French, and Dutch colonists and the native peoples of North America from first contact to independence.
HIST 267/America's Moving Frontier 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Examines the westward expansion of the United States from independence through the closing of the frontier in 1890. Concludes with an analysis of America’s overseas expansion into the Philippines, Puerto Rico, and Guam.

HIST 271/U.S. in the 19th Century 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
This course will examine the history of the United States between 1815 and 1896. Topics covered will include the growth of industry and wage labor, changing patterns of family life and gender roles, the rise of mass-based political parties, the collision between North and South that resulted in civil war, and the unfulfilled promise of emancipation.

HIST 272/Technology in American History 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
This course surveys chronologically the centrally important role of technology in the United States during the past two centuries. Students will assess the interconnections between manufacturing technologies, transportation technologies, and urban and suburban development.

HIST 273/The South, 1607–1877 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Prerequisite: Sophomore standing
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
The course will introduce students to the history of the most divergent region of the United States. It will focus on the slave South of the mid-19th century, when North/South differences and perceptions of difference sharpened and finally led to civil war. The course will conclude with an assessment of emancipation and Reconstruction.

HIST 274/Origins of the U.S. Constitution 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Cross-listed with POLS 274
An examination of the political theories, people, social and economic forces, events and political context that influenced the framing and ratification of the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

HIST 285/African-American History to 1865 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(annually)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
Cross-listed with AFAM 205
An examination of the history of African Americans from their ancestral home in Africa to the end of the United States Civil War. The course encompasses introducing the cultures and civilizations of the African people prior to the opening up of the New World and exploring black contributions to America up to 1865.

HIST 291/Environmental History 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western
A thematic assessment of human interaction with nature over time. Comparative case studies will examine differing land-use practices and the intensifying environmental pressures of the 20th century.

HIST 295/History of Western Sexuality 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western, Gender
This course will investigate topics in the history of sexuality and sexual variance in the Western world from the classical to the modern period. Broad overviews of sexual behavior and attitudes in given historical periods will be supplemented by detailed examinations of specific topics within those periods, e.g., Homosexuality in the Classical World; Witchcraft and Sexuality in the Early Modern World; Libertinage in the Age of Absolution in France, etc.

HIST 296/Eat/Drink, Man/Woman: A Gendered History of Food 3 cr.
(3 class hours)
(periodically)
Perspectives on the World: History, Western, Gender
Cross-listed with WGST 296 Eat/Drink, Man/Woman: A Gendered History of Food
An introduction to the history of food consumption and preparation in the Western world, and its place in defining gender roles throughout history. Possible topics will include prehistoric gender roles, food as part of religious ceremony, development of table manners, the politics of breast-feeding, the changing role of kitchens, and the history of eating disorders.
