Recruitment Information -

All AFT membership representatives will be sent a list of FT/PT non-members in their department or office along with membership cards very soon. These individuals are being asked again to personally contact individuals on their list and discuss the importance of building our membership. Any assistance you can provide in this process with strengthen our union.

We expect to utilize an outside recruiter once again to contact adjunct faculty non-members. Although it would be better to have recruiting done by TCNJ adjunct faculty or full-time faculty, that is not something which has worked on our campus. Although outside recruiters are not members of the TCNJ family, they are able to spend the time necessary to meet adjunct faculty either before or after their scheduled classes or AT ANY OTHER TIME WHICH MIGHT BE APPROPRIATE. Please let us know if you have any suggestions for improving this process. WE REALLY NEED TO BRING THE LEVEL OF ADJUNCT FACULTY AFT MEMBERSHIP ABOVE THE 50% POINT.

Recruitment letters will also been sent again via campus mail and email to each non-member in either the FT/PT or AF bargaining units, explaining the benefits of joining the AFT and importance of increasing our membership to build our strength!

PLEASE HELP TO SPREAD THE WORD ABOUT THE AFT!

Welcome back.

Since the Star Ledger recently ran a story about the Rutgers’ contract settlement, some questions have been raised by a few of our members. I am not prepared to do an in depth comparison of the two contracts here but some of the key misconceptions are:

Their total settlement is richer than ours. It is not. Their overall money pot must also pay for promotions. Promotions for are unit are over and above.

The percent salary increase factors in merit raises that will go to individuals with some receiving no merit and a typical increase could be a little a $500.

Their contract saw the elimination of a salary guide – there are no longevity increments that some of our people take for granted and that we have fought to preserve.

They, like all of the bargaining units in the state that have signed contracts this year, will have the same medical program. This is the same plan for all out-of-unit state employees as well.

There have been some exaggerated examples of what one might pay if their physician were not in the plan. The fee schedule for out of network and in network “usual and customary” is identical. The State requires the use of the same fee structure for all of its medical programs.

Therefore, we are talking about the difference between 70%, in the new PPO, and 80%, in the traditional, which is counter balanced by the lower premium, 1.5% of pay vs. the percentage of premium; you will pay if you are moving from the traditional to the new PPO.

Finally for those who advocated extending our negotiations into this fall, the State’s financial picture is bleaker right now then it was a few months ago. The forecast for the next budget is not encouraging. In speaking with representatives of the governor’s office and several legislators we hear cuts in all non-mandatory areas of the budget are being contemplated. Higher Ed is not a mandatory area.

Note: The current Rutgers contract is an improvement over their past contract but they have not yet achieved overall financial parity with ours. They are working toward that and I wish them well.
