

Art All Night

No Jury, No Fee, No Censorship

Art All Night is a grassroots event staged by an all-volunteer crew. It's purposes is to celebrate and promote the artistic expression of the greater Trenton community. It gives 4 year olds, seniors, long-term residents, novice artists, educators, students, and seasoned professionals the opportunity to display one piece of art for public viewing for 24 hours.

Other activities include poetry readings, live music, live broadcasting by radio stations, and kids activities. Beer and wine will be sold to help raise money for expenses.

Art All Night is a catalyst for community development, shining a spotlight on our unique city. This event will help Trenton attract artisans, lovers of beautiful architecture, and people drawn to the spice and flavor of urban living.

For pictures of Pittsburgh's Art All Night go to <http://www.artallnight.com/Gallery/ArtAllNight2005/index.html>

Volunteer Needs

Art All Night is a huge event relying solely on volunteers for production and management

Production: An organizing committee that meets monthly as well as subcommittees that meet as needed. Subcommittees might include: web site, registration, gallery layout and construction, publicity, security, kids activities.

Management: We'll need about 60 people throughout the weekend to help build the gallery walls, help with registration, hang the art, conduct the kids activities.

Produced by: Artworks, a non-profit 501(c)3 community arts organization

Date: One weekend in March or April, 2007 – TBD. Lasts from 2:00pm on Saturday to 2:00pm on Sunday.

Location: Broad Street Bank Building basement, Trenton, NJ

Contact: Michael Gumpert, 609-510-8455, gump5555@hotmail.com