Faculty: Mackie, Chair: Allyn, Brooks, Chak, Fichner-Rathus, Hutton, Joyce, Kaplowitz, Miller, Miranda, Nyman, Riccardi, Rigby, Taylor

The Department of Art offers the Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree with majors in fine arts, graphic design, and digital arts, and the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree with majors in art education and art history. In addition, students may minor in art history, fine arts, digital arts, or photography. Courses in art foundation studies and liberal learning are integral parts of the curriculum. The Art Department is committed to providing programs of study which develop a high level of conceptual and technical ability, resources beyond the studio for a broader education in the arts, exposure to and understanding of electronic media and methods of communication, and a balance between a demanding course of professional study and a liberal arts education.

The art facility features traditional studios as well as state-of-the-art computing and electronic media labs. The faculty of the Department of Art consists of scholars, exhibiting artists, and active professionals, and it is augmented by guest lecturers and adjunct professors who are practicing professionals in the New York-Philadelphia corridor. The department enjoys an enviable placement record in terms of graduate study and employment, and graduates of the program have attained positions of leadership in their respective fields. The College of New Jersey is located near the major art and design centers of New York and Philadelphia and students are encouraged and often required to visit museums, galleries, design studios, production houses, and other art facilities in these areas.

Admission Requirements

Acceptance to the studio majors (fine arts, graphic design, digital arts, and art education) offered by the Department of Art requires a successful portfolio review as well as admission by the College. After the department has received a copy of the student's application from the Office of Admissions, it will review slide portfolios. January admission candidates and early-decision candidates are reviewed in November. Regular September admission candidates are reviewed from December through March.

The portfolio should consist of

- a) Slides or a CD,
- b) A numbered slide list indicating the title, materials and dimensions of the work and
- c) A one-page personal essay.

Slides or CD

Include 12 slides or images on a CD of original works, demonstrating the applicant's drawing and technical skills, creativity, and aesthetic ability. A substantial part of the portfolio should feature drawings (still life, figure, self-portrait, and assorted sketches). All work must be original. Copies of other artists' work should not be included in the portfolio. In addition, the slides may document work in other media (painting, printmaking, sculpture, photography, mixed-media, digital media, and video). If possible, please also include at least one slide from a sketchbook. Professional presentation of the work is important. Please present documentation that is in-focus, well lit and shows your best work. Send numbered slides in a 8.5" x 11" clear slide sheet, indicating the front of the slide. A large dot should be placed in the lower left corner of the slide telling us which direction is up.

If images are saved on a CD, please follow these guidelines.

1. Format CD as MAC or cross platform.
2. Save all images as .tiff, .jpeg or .gif files.
3. Save each file with a name, lowercase and with no spaces. Do not begin a name with a number. An example of an appropriate name is: image_01.

Slide List

Include a numbered slide list along with your submitted work. Indicate your name, date of completion, materials, and dimensions of the individual pieces.

Personal Essay

Please include a one-page, single-spaced statement that includes a brief description of who you are, and your experience in art and life. Your essay should include your major artistic and academic goals, and your reasons for wanting to specialize in the visual arts.

Enrollment in Department of Art Courses

Except for art courses which have specific non-art major sections and art history courses, all art courses are restricted to art majors and minors. A non-major student who wishes to enroll in major courses must obtain permission from the chair of the department.

Art minors must report to the department chair for advisement and registration for art courses.

Studio Art Major General Requirements

All studio art majors are required to take AAH 105 and/or 106, AAH 115, AAH 116, or other 100 level non-western art course , and 250; AFA 111, 112, 113; and ADA 180.

While the department supplies many materials, students are required to purchase materials in most studio courses. Art history and studio courses may require field trips at students' expense.

Students who receive a grade of C– or lower in a major required course must repeat the course.

Program Entrance, Retention, and Exit Standards

Every major program at the College has set standards for allowing students to remain in that program, to transfer within the College from one program to another, and to graduate from a program. The following are the standards for art programs. Minimum grades are noted in parentheses:

- Retention in the art studio majors (Fine Arts, Graphic Design, Digital Arts, and Art Education) is based on the following performance standards in these “critical content courses”: AFA 111 (B), AFA 112 (B), and AFA 113 (B).
- Transfer into the art studio majors from another program within the College is based upon the following performance standards in this “foundation course”: AFA 111 (Drawing) (B).
- Graduation requires a GPA of 2.0 in courses for the program and earning a minimum grade of C– in the following courses: all major courses.

Attendance Requirements

Participation is considered essential to the learning process. Therefore, more than two unexcused absences per course may be detrimental to the student's final grade.

Transfer Students

Transfer students into studio art majors are required to take a minimum of 12 course units in TCNJ's Department of Art. The 12 course unit minimum cannot include credit by examination, student teaching, or internships. Portfolio admission requirements are explained under the admission requirements section above. Transfer students should include a copy of their transcript(s) with their portfolio.

The College Art Gallery

Masterson, Director

The Department of Art offers a program of diversified exhibitions throughout the academic year which includes national juried drawing and printmaking exhibitions. Additionally, there is an annual student exhibition with numerous awards. Students are encouraged to participate in the gallery program as gallery assistants.

Art Students' Organizations

The Department of Art sponsors the student organization, the Art Students Association (ASA). Students are invited to join and become active members.

Fine Arts Major (ARTA)—BFA Degree

The fine arts curriculum consists of an intensive foundation in drawing, 2D and 3D design, color theory, digital arts, a variety of studio disciplines, and a core of art history courses. It culminates in the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. The fine arts program offers a flexible course of study in which students may follow a specific advanced curriculum in the major fine arts, or may design their own advanced curriculum through faculty advisement and critique. The senior year includes two capstone courses which result in an exhibit of senior thesis work.

The fine arts program takes advantage of the College's proximity to major museums, galleries, and collections in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington to broaden students' exposure to current trends and traditional concepts and techniques. Students begin to focus on the professional aspects of their careers early in their program of study and are encouraged to exhibit work throughout the College campus as well as in the annual student exhibit and other venues.

Advanced studio courses may be repeated for credit to gain the desired depth in the studio areas. Independent study is available to upper-level art majors with three courses in a studio or lecture area in which they have earned a minimum 3.33 GPA. A minimum of 12 course units must be taken in the art department at The College of New Jersey. Personal advisement and portfolio preparation counseling are available to those students who wish to prepare for graduate school.

FINE ARTS COURSES

AFA 101/Experiencing Art

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

This course will contain three four-week modules that will explore different media and different goals in the process of making and looking at art: 1) two dimensional; 2) three dimensional; and 3) digital imaging. The curriculum will be introductory in nature, offering a conceptual explanation of and hands-on experience with fundamental concerns of understanding and creating works of art. Students will be rotated through the different modules. In each module they will be presented with a theoretical context and receive instruction and practice in each.

AFA 111/Drawing I

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

The purpose of the course is to cultivate the student's ability to express ideas visually and develop confidence in drawing a variety of subjects with diverse materials. Exercises cultivate skill in determining composition, rendering geometric shapes, depicting perspective and three dimensional illusion, fashioning light, shade, proportion, scale, surface and textures as well as arranging still life composition. Field trip(s) required.

AFA 112/Conceptual Art Studio

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

Conceptual Studio initiates investigation into current forms of artistic production. At the heart of Conceptual Art lies the question "What is Art?" Conceptual Art challenges the traditional status of the art object as product and refocuses artistic creativity in the process of art making, the ideas invoked, and the meaning of cultural production. Among the approaches to art making that will be researched and put into practice will be the readymade, public intervention, performance and ephemeral works, language and the use of signifiers.

AFA 113/Color Theory/2D Design

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

This course provides essential concepts and skills necessary to function as a visual artist (graphic designer, digital artist or traditional fine artist). Strong emphasis is placed on the visual component of art; how to apply the elements of art (line, shape, color, texture and space) in order to accomplish one's subjective goal. Color, as a visual element, is singled out in this course because of its complexity, importance in our visual environment, and the limited knowledge entering students have regarding the subject.

AFA 118/3D Design

1 course unit

(with studio)

(annually—spring)

A studio investigation of three-dimensional design and spatial relationships. Emphasis is on the visual elements and principles of design, and will include a variety of design sources: nature, technology, materials, fine art, and architecture.

AFA 130/Sculpture I

1 course unit

(with studio)

(every semester)

Prerequisite: AFA 118

A studio investigation of the fundamental concepts, tools and techniques of sculpture. Emphasis on the relationships between volume, texture, and space, and personal efforts to join form, content, and process within a unified sculptural expression.

AFA 201/Figure Drawing

1 course unit

(with studio)

(every semester)

Prerequisite: AFA 111

This studio course is designed to cultivate skills necessary to reproduce the human figure on a two-dimensional surface and to appreciate the figure's influence in the visual arts. By means of figure drawing exercises to isolate the form and incorporate lighting and focus on detail, students explore personal characteristics of body type, age and gender. Assignments address the uniqueness of the human body's capacity to communicate nuance through gesture and position. Field trip(s) required. May be repeated.

AFA 202/Printmaking

1 course unit

(with studio)

(every semester)

Prerequisites: AFA 111, AFA 112, and AFA 113

A studio investigation of fine art printmaking techniques. Print production, the making of etchings, aquatints, engravings and collage prints will be explored through creative projects. Emphasis on exploring experimental, contemporary developments of printmaking techniques.

AFA 211/Painting

1 course unit

(with studio)

(every semester)

Prerequisites: AFA 111, AFA 112, and AFA 113

An introductory studio investigation of the concepts and techniques of painting, and the major historical painting styles. Emphasis is on the development of painting as a foundation for the development of a personal visual language. Acrylic or oil media may be used.

AFA 220/Jewelry Design

1 course unit

(with studio)

(annually—fall)

A studio investigation of jewelry design. Emphasis on the creative use of materials, tools, and techniques necessary to express an idea through wearable adornments. Technical concentration on fabrication techniques, piercing, smithing, forging, etching, surface treatment, and stone setting.

AFA 221/Fiber Art

1 course unit

(with studio)
(occasionally)

An introductory studio investigation of the media of fiber and fabric. Emphasis on the various techniques of stitching, stuffing, knotting, dyeing, weaving, and creative problem solving.

AFA 226/Ceramics

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

A studio investigation of clay as an artistic medium. Emphasis on the properties and potential of clay and glazes for use in personal expression, and the evolution of pottery as form, color, and decoration.

AFA 230/Advanced Sculpture

1 course unit

(with studio)
(occasionally)

Prerequisite: AFA 130

Continued investigation of the relationships of form, media, and personal expression. Advanced technologies in working with metal, wood, stone, and acrylics will be explored. May be repeated.

AFA 280/Photography I

1 course unit

(with studio)
(every semester)

Photography I introduces students to traditional photographic equipment and practice using light to create art. With an emphasis on personal vision, this course is designed to develop art-related technological skill, personal aesthetics, an awareness of the history of photography, and critical thinking. At the introductory level, the student will become proficient in using a manual 35mm camera to create photographic prints.

AFA 281/Documentary Photography

1 course unit

(with studio)
(annually spring)

This course will focus on understanding and creating documentary photography while exploring its history, traditions and role in contemporary society. The photograph will be investigated as evidence, especially its application to scientific and anthropological proofs and the documentary image's potential within a broader program of social reform. Reading and lectures will explore how photojournalists greatly expanded the boundaries of documentary photography through new mass media publications and how documentary photography also made its first significant inroad into the world of fine art. The course will focus on the idea of the documentary as an approach inseparable from the photographer's particular viewpoint and aesthetic concerns.

AFA 301/Advanced Drawing

1 course unit

(with studio)
(spring)

Prerequisites: AFA 111, AFA 201, or permission of instructor

Continued studio investigation of drawing as a means of personal expression. Emphasis on a more intense employment of a variety drawing media applied to creative, personal visual expression. May be repeated.

AFA 302/Advanced Printmaking 1 course unit
(with studio)
(occasionally)
Prerequisite: AFA 202 or permission of instructor
Specialization in one printmaking medium: lithography, serigraphy, intaglio, relief, collography, etc.
Emphasis on exploring a creative, contemporary application of these techniques. May be repeated.

AFA 305/Art Photography 1 course unit
(with studio)
(every semester)
Prerequisite: AFA 280
This course explores advanced photography with traditional and alternative-process techniques. Students will be challenged to investigate and explore his or her own creative direction. Students are expected to complete this course with technical proficiency and to have a fuller understanding of photography's critical context in contemporary art. May be repeated.

AFA 311/Advanced Painting 1 course unit
(with studio)
(spring)
Prerequisite: AFA 211 or permission of instructor
Continued studio investigation of the medium of painting as a means of personal expression. Emphasis on the development of advanced technical, and stylistic original work, and the creative processes artists use in the development of a painting. May be repeated.

AFA 315/Watercolor 1 course unit
(with studio)
(occasionally)
Prerequisites: AFA 111, 112, 113, 201, 211
A studio investigation of watercolor as a painting medium. Emphasis on the uniqueness of watercolor as a transparent painting medium, historical developments, and the development of personal expression. May be repeated.

AFA 320/Advanced Jewelry Design 1 course unit
(with studio)
(occasionally)
Prerequisite: AFA 220
Continued studio investigation of jewelry making techniques and materials. Emphasis on the refinement of fabrication skills, problem-solving techniques, and the development of personal expression through unique wearable adornments. May be repeated.

AFA 325/Puppetry—A Creative Approach 1 course unit
(with studio)
(occasionally)
Prerequisite: One fine arts course
A studio investigation of puppet theater as a form of artistic visual communication. Emphasis on the techniques used to create and manipulate puppets, culminating with performances by student puppeteers.

AFA 326/Advanced Ceramics 1 course unit
(with studio)

(every semester)

Prerequisite: AFA 226 or permission of instructor

A continued studio investigation of fine art ceramic techniques and methods. Emphasis on techniques of wheel-throwing and hand assembly, creative ceramic design, historical pottery perspectives, and empirical glaze chemistry and calculation. Students develop their own glazes and clay bodies, culminating in completed creative sculptural or utilitarian forms. May be repeated.

AFA 370/Topics in Art

1 course unit

(occasionally)

Prerequisites: One art course and permission of instructor

Offered as either a studio and/or lecture class with a differing focus (e.g., current trends in art, the creative process and visual art, etc.) each time. May be repeated.

AFA 381/Photography II

1 course unit

(with studio)

(occasionally)

Prerequisite: AFA 280

Photography II introduces students to the operation of 4x5 view cameras while building upon the foundations of photography that students learned in Photography I. The course provides a hands-on experience and studio practice while emphasizing the study of studio works by photographic masters. Working in the medium of color photography, students will be challenged to explore their own unique photographic voice through a variety of assignments and group critiques.

AFA 391/Independent Study

1-2 course units

(every semester)

(May not be taken as a substitute for any other course)

Prerequisites: Enrollment as an upper division fine arts major; student must have taken a minimum of three courses in the fine arts. These courses must be completed with a 3.33 average. Preregistration with signed approval of an art faculty sponsor and of department chair required.

Independent study is for students engaged in advanced work only, and is an opportunity to develop personal interests and strengths within the major field. Emphasis is on individual, self-guided work under the supervision of a faculty adviser and/or committee. May be repeated.

AFA 399/Internship

1-2 course units

(every semester)

Prerequisites: Enrollment is limited to upper division program majors or minors with at least a 3.0 GPA in that program. See Internship Application Form for individual program requirements and details. Pre-registration with Internship Application Form and signed approval of the program coordinator, the department chair, and an art faculty sponsor.

The primary purpose of the college-level internship experience is the development of occupational or professional competence in the actual occupation setting after the student's education has been completed. Other purposes (income, career exploration, learning-by-doing, on-the-job training, etc.) cannot be the primary purpose, though they may occur as a secondary result of the internship experience.

AFA 498/Fine Arts: Theory and Practice

1 course unit

(annually—fall)

Prerequisites: Open only to students with senior standing in the fine arts major or by permission of the fine arts coordinator

The course is designed to develop the student's understanding of theoretical material and issues in contemporary fine arts. The course will be composed of readings, seminar discussion, field investigations, and class and faculty critique. Field investigations will include gallery visits, meetings with curators, and visits to artists' studios. This exposure will enhance the student's knowledge and understanding of issues related to the art profession. Students will be required to research a relevant topic in contemporary art and present this material to the class and instructor. Student research will be guided by individual, class, and faculty critiques in the initial development of their Senior Thesis Project. This will culminate in a Senior Thesis Exhibit in AFA 499, the sequel to this course.

AFA 499/Fine Arts: Thesis Project

1 course unit

(with studio)

(annually—spring)

Prerequisite: AFA 498 or by permission of fine arts coordinator

Intensive research and study within a studio concentration which culminates in the public presentation of the senior exhibit. The student will be required to prepare and present this body of work, their visual thesis, for critical review to an Art Faculty Committee prior to its public presentation in the Senior Fine Arts Exhibition. Additionally, the student will be required to present a written component to the visual thesis which describes in full the processes and the outcomes of the senior research.
