Public Policy Analysis and Management Minor

Advisers: Ball, Koch

The public policy and management minor provides students with critical, analytical, and managerial skills for careers in public affairs including citizen activism and advocacy, appointed and elected public office, community development, and public affairs journalism. Based on core contributions from political science and economics, the minor is also interdisciplinary in nature, encouraging students to develop content specializations and field experience in a variety of departments.

Requirements for the Minor in Public Policy Analysis and Management

A total of five course units are required for the minor, three core courses and a specialty consisting of a course and an internship in a designated content area.

Core: three courses required
