

In all 100-level language courses, students may not enroll in a course at a lower level once they have completed a more advanced-level course.

SPA 101, 102, 103/Spanish for Beginners I, II, III

1 course unit each

(every semester)

This sequence is founded on the five C's of the National Foreign Language Standards. Students will have the opportunity to practice the three modes of Communication to learn about Hispanic Culture and to make Comparisons between their first language and culture and the Spanish language and culture. In addition, students make Connections to other fields of study unavailable to them through their native language. Finally, students have the opportunity to engage with the Hispanic Community outside of the classroom. The goal of the basic Spanish sequence therefore is to produce students with an observable and definable degree of language proficiency. Proficiency is measured by the achievement of particular benchmarks as defined by ACTFL in the four skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing), and supported by the five C's cited above. Conversation hour is required in SPA 101, 102, and 103. Students with four or more years of high school Spanish will not receive credit for 101.

SPA 119/ Spanish 1 for Health Care

1 course unit

(occasionally)

The purpose of this course is to combine the study of Spanish language with Mexican Culture. Special emphasis will be given to the development of a basic knowledge of health care vocabulary and the ability to take a medical history in Spanish. The exposure to another people's language, history, culture and language will also offer students the opportunity to reflect on their own language and culture. Students will obtain their information through textbooks, newspapers, magazines, videos, professionally prepared CDs and PowerPoint presentations. Moreover, they will participate in a culminating experience in the form of a two week immersion experience in the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico to see, hear, smell, taste and touch what they have studied. This course has no prerequisites. However, students should expect an intense classroom experience with a large amount of homework outside of class.

SPA 203/Intermediate Oral Proficiency

1 course unit

(every semester)

Prerequisite: SPA 103 or placement in 200-level course (Heritage speakers will NOT receive credit for SPA 203. They should enroll in SPA 210.)

This course focuses on the development of students' Spanish oral proficiency at the ACTFL intermediate level. Oral proficiency will be continually stressed through interviews, storytelling, debates, role-playing and oral presentations on cultural products, practices and perspectives. Oral proficiency development will be supported with written journals and readings. Appropriate grammar points will be illustrated in order to support growth in intermediate oral proficiency.
