

© 2005 Timesman photo by A. Scheer

The Sesquicentennial is history

Following 18 months of celebrating the 150th anniversary of the founding of The College of New Jersey, the Sesquicentennial ceremonies came to a close on the evening of October 29 with a fireworks display over the Green Lane athletics fields. The airburst pictured here is viewed from Metzger Drive northeast over Paul Loser Hall. The final ceremony took place on the Sundial Lawn next to the Brower Student Center. With closing words from President R. Barbara Gitenstein and Alumni Association President Greg Bellotti '92, the flaming cauldron, symbolic of the entire celebration, was extinguished by members of the Class of 1955. Thus ended our Sesquicentennial, a time of taking stock, expressing pride in our past, and showing confidence in our future.