

MERCER COUNTY

You can't find a better place to locate your business.

Brian M. Hughes, County Executive

Board of Chosen Freeholders

Office of Economic Opportunity

presents

Doing Business With Mercer County

How to Start A Business From A-Z

To start a successful business, you need sharp tools and an understanding of not only the product or service you offer, but also the basic financial skills to ensure your fiscal soundness. Topics include business ownership options, marketing, business planning, and more.

Co-sponsored by Small Business Development Center At The College of New Jersey

Where Business Go to Grow

Thursday, March 6, 2008
TCNJ School of Business Room 122
Ewing, New Jersey
6:00pm – 8:00 pm

Register on-line at www.tcnj.edu/sbdc or call 609. 771. 2947

Agreement #01-7620-0031-20. The support given by the U.S. Small Business Administration through such funding does not constitute an express or implied endorsement of any if the cosponsor(s) or participants opinions, findings, conclusions recommendations, products or services. SBA programs and services are available to all persons without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, handicap, or age. Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made, if requested, at least two weeks in advance. Contact the SBDC at 609-771-2947.